ACTIVITIES AND SERVICES FOR EPCE MEMBERS

Biweekly newsletters with analysis of the most debated issues relating to national and international data protection laws.

Free access to all web conferences and seminars arranged by the European Privacy Centre, in which high qualified speakers specialized on data protection will be involved (also on-demand access).

The EPCE members have the following opportunities:

s. l.: 04100 Latina - Italy - via Duca del Mare,16

00123 Roma - Via Cassia, 1716/a

- 4 to publish articles and e-books promoted by EPCE.
- 4 to publish articles on the EPCE web site.
- to participate in working groups on specific sectors, according to a preliminary evaluation of the working group coordinator.
- 4 to participate in scientific committees, in which debated issues in the international context, studies and projects will be discussed or carried out.
- 4 to be involved in projects funded by the EU, such as 7° FP, ICT-PSP, PPP, etc..

MAIN TOPICS OF THE YEAR 2012

Technical and juridical aspects on cloud computing: the European and National data protection laws, security, legal issues relating to international jurisdiction and applicable law, contractual aspects and service level agreements.

National Do-Not-Call Registry and telemarketing: how to be compliant with Community and national laws? Analysis of the functioning of the registry and the enforcement of do-not -call provisions.

Video surveillance in European Union and in extra-EU Countries: analysis of data processing in complex video surveillance systems (i.e. video surveillance systems integrated with biometric recognition such as facial or fingerprint recognition devices, etc.), effectiveness of the provisions and privacy infringements, mandatory tasks and prior checking procedure in Member States.

A deep analysis of the new proposed EU Regulation and Directive: External scope of the EU data protection law, the role of Data Protection Officer, principles of privacy by design and by default, consistency mechanism, and the principle of main establishment.

Legal issues relating to behavioral advertising: the opt out and analysis of the right behavior.

Transpositions in Member States of the Directive 2009/136/Ce: analysis of data breach notifications, how to be compliant with Community and National law? How to be compliant with the cookie consent laws?